Welcome

Sometimes there's nothing better than the opinion of an outside expert; one versed on the subject; one detached from the object; one eager to prove the value of his knowledge.

I can be that expert for you.

New Home Sales and Marketing

My expertise is new home sales and marketing. I plan and execute grand openings and troubleshoot problem projects. I do not beat around the bush trying new ideas, but provide the leadership needed to generate sales on my clients' projects. Now!

If sales are slow on any particular project; if you are not satisfied with the way things look or with the way things are going; if you want a new sales and marketing plan (fresh, energizing, executed with vigor) or a new sales staff (motivated, focused) call to arrange my visit. I'll look at your projects wherever they may be, determine their needs from the point of view of an outside expert, and help you turn things around fast.

I will brand your projects with such a strong "Image of Success" their power of attraction will be irresistible. I will establish sales programs and procedures that get results.

My expertise is the outgrowth of hands-on experience reaching back more than thirty-five years and the successful closeout of many hundreds of projects for builders all across the California Southland (and projects within other states and regions), many thousands of homes, condos and lots in all irrespective of the conditions of the market, time or place.

Lead the Field / Dominate the Market / Be Confident

To be successful whether a Marketing Professional or Builder you've got to be structured and focused in your work. There must be direction and purpose in your strategies as well as performance guarantees and viability in your programs. You and all on your staff have to have a positive attitude and a successful image.

While you already know this and have these things to some greater or lesser degree than needed, what is more important than your merely being organized for success is whether the way you are organized for success – the strategies and programs you use – gets you to where you want to go quickly. In new home sales time "is" of the essence.

Can you imagine doubling or tripling your results in half or less the time, with half or less the effort, and with half or less the expense? Wouldn't that be great?

We often hear someone say there are no short cuts to success, but that's not true. There are short cuts to success. They come in the form of the leadership you submit to, the company you keep, the tools and tactics you use: one way versus another.

The field of psychiatry originally arose from the attempt to address the tangible origin of the intangibles in human behavior and, still, it is a striving for order out of chaos. Business leaders whatever the endeavor seek to accomplish the same, they are the psychologists of commerce.

Similarly, the One-On-One Teleconference Support provided by me (Consultant) personally is a telephone conferencing support system developed and designed to grow the business of new home sales professionals – Brokers, Marketing Professionals and Builders – in the direction of the experience and expertise of Consultant; it is a licensing program in that Consultant will license the use of his various programs, structures, tools, media and methodologies as needed and authorized by Consultant for the benefit of Clients; and it is a program for bringing order to a Client's business.

Secrets

Substance / Privities

Consultant, Al Lewis, will render substantive sales and marketing advisory and/or consultative services to Clients at an initial rate of $150.00 per hour by phone and is willing and able to license the various programs, structures, tools, media and methodologies of his business, the Secrets, Substance and Privities, subject to a prepaid consultative-fee funded by Clients; additionally, Al Lewis will give Clients without guarantee, express or implied, the benefit of his special knowledge, skill, contacts and business experience to the extent representative of a telephone-oriented consultative/training relationship relevant to the Clients' needs and interests as an adviser to promote the Clients' business and financial well being.

Some licensed programs may require additional nominal charges for setup, delivery and training exceeding the practicality of delivery by phone alone and/or because of requests by Clients which exceed the consultative relationship representative of a telephone oriented consultative/training program.

Leap of Faith / Brokers, Marketing Professionals and Builders with office and staff that have perused Consultant Al Lewis' builder sales website; and, who have conscientiously looked into the programs, literature, sales and marketing wherewithal and single-minded purpose, New Home Sales Success, of Consultant; and, who have determined that Consultant's experience, insight, substance, focus, intention and determination to effect the success of their new home sales enterprises in a clear and positive way is formidable should take a Leap of Faith and enter into an on-call consultative/license relationship with Consultant ASAP.

When planning a major move, a company position on sales and marketing; a value-buy or image-building media campaign; a team building program; a unique, proprietary sales and marketing strategy; a sale by auction program; or other similar strategy or tactic call for my advice on the matter. The more you talk with me the more money you will make (and save).
